

Your CHEAT SHEET to Social Thinking

*Impress your child with your knowledge!
Sound like a pro at your next TEAM meeting!*

Michelle Garcia Winner is the founder and creative force behind Social Thinking. She travels worldwide, but is based in San Jose, CA. She usually comes to the Boston area in October. She is scheduled to speak in Hartford in May:
www.socialthinking.com/conferences

Social Thinking Words & Phrases to Know & Use-

- Expected/Unexpected
- Think with your eyes
- Likely/Unlikely
- Flexible Thinking
- On topic/off topic*
- Good thought (Green)/weird thought (Red)
- Smart/Random guess
- Big/Small Problem

Books Worth Investing In-

Winner, Michelle Garcia and Crooke, Pamela; You Are A Social Detective!
Explaining Social Thinking to Kids; California, Think Social Publishing Inc., 2008.

Winner, Michelle Garcia and Crooke, Pamela; Socially Curious and Curiously Social; California, Think Social Publishing Inc., 2011.

Simple Props to Keep at Home-

- Thought/Talk Bubble Shapes
- Red/Green Thought Reminders
- Likely/Unlikely Jar
- Flexible Thinking Reminder (Play-Doh, a ruler, a squeeze toy)
- Superflex Poster (4.95, www.socialthinking.com)

Remember to:

- Keep it in context
- Use vocabulary to support, not to discipline
- Talk about social expectations ahead of time

Oh, and never forget- YOUR KIDS ARE AWESOME, JUST THE WAY THEY ARE (Sorry, just had to squeeze that in, since I had your attention!).